

29 DEC 1970

A. Beach, Clarke
Soc. 4.01.1 U.S. News &
World Report

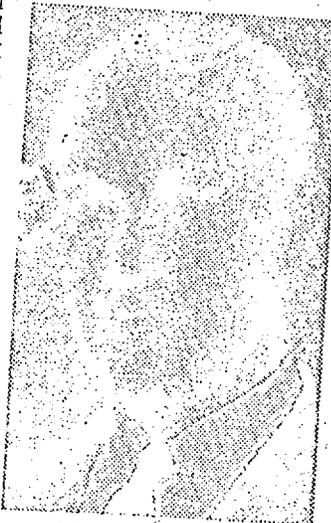

Clarke Beach, 65, Editor On U.S. News Magazine

Clarke Beach, 65, an editorial executive for U.S. News and World Report magazine and a newsman for 33 years, died yesterday of cancer at the George Washington University Hospital. He lived at 6623 Culver E., Kensington.

Mr. Beach was born in Washington and was graduated from old Central High School here. He received his master's degree from Harvard University in 1932, after being graduated from the University of Maryland.

He was on the staff of the Baltimore Sun for six years and with the Washington bureau of the Associated Press for 16 years before joining U.S. News and World Report in 1951. He rose to general news editor for the magazine's national staff.

Before he became a newspaperman, Mr. Beach worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation while studying law at George Washington University for two years. He was a Marine Corps air intelligence officer in the South Pacific during World War II.

CLARKE BEACH

He leaves a sister, Mrs. Gordon Ritchie of Chevy Chase, and a brother, David J., of Washington.

Services will be at noon Thursday at Joseph Gawler's Sons Funeral Home, 5120 Wisconsin Ave. NW. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.